AMERICAN GUILD OF ORGANISTS—TWIN CITIES CHAPTER

It's All About Togetherness..... TCAGO Membership Event on Sunday May 20, 2007

by Michael Barone

Friends and colleagues provide both the means and the ends of our May 20 TCAGO 'happening'. And that means you! Come all together now to downtown Saint Paul, and celebrate the spring season with good cheer.

First, beginning at 5:30 pm, socialize and enjoy a light supper buffet of finger foods in a reception at Minnesota Public Radio/American Public Media's newly expanded headquarters (home of PIPEDREAMS). Tour the facilities - the primary source of classical music radio programming in the United States - and hear a brief audio presentation by Michael Barone.

Then walk next door to the grandly dramatic late-19th-century sanctuary of Central Presbyterian Church for a 7:30 pm Members' Recital of duets...pairs of players at one instrument, plus organ-and-piano and organ-organ teams. The public is invited to this concert, too, so tell your friends.

Stately and imposing, the native red stone structure of Central Presbyterian Church is home to a warm-voiced 1889 J. W. Steere organ (revised in 1932 by Kimball, with console and further modifications in the 1960s by Moeller) and a 9' Baldwin concert grand piano. Central is also providing 'sanctuary' for a well-traveled eight-stop neo-Baroque 1954 Rieger positive organ, with its own distinctive tone.

Expect some real variety in the programming of this concert...music with 18th century charm, romantic pathos and passion, ragtime and jazz influences, plus some modern harmonies, too..from composers such as Clifford Demarest, Antonio Soler, Gabriel Faure, Emma Lou Diemer, Joseph Reveyron and Daniel Pinkham.

Among the performers you'll hear Richard Collman and Lawrence Martin, Kevin Kuryluk Pisel and Jeffrey Hamilton, Diana Lee Lucker, Carolyn Diamond, Steve Gentile, Jane and Robert Nienaber and others.

Show up for the food, relish the camaraderie, cheer the players...come, all together, now!

IMPORTANT: If you will attend the MPR Reception, you must R.S.V.P. by May 15 to Laura Woodruff at MPR (651-290-1045; lwoodruff@mpr.org).

Building Distinguished Pipe Organs for 134 Years

Dean's Column

Greetings to All!

A great TCAGO program year is nearing its finish, and the creative, hardworking program committee already has the 2007-2008 events calendar well in hand. This season will end as it began - with a members' recital (Well, there is the fun season closing boat cruise in June!). The September members' recital was our best attended meeting of the year. Let's even surpass that on May 20th when we have the opportunity to tour Minnesota Public Radio and hear a delightful program of duets at neighboring Central Presbyterian Church. This meeting, by the way, would be a perfect opportunity to introduce friends to the AGO. Who wouldn't love to see Michael Barone's lair on 7th Street, have a few nibbles, and move on to historic Central Presbyterian for a novelle recital?

You will be receiving your TCAGO membership renewal form in the mail soon. You will notice that dues for a regular member are $86 for '07-'08. The National Council initiated and approved this modest increase after three years at $84. All categories of membership will rise by $2, with $1 designated for the chapter and $1 for national. This reflects the regular allocation of dues between the national office and local chapter. Year to date, the membership dues received by our treasurer are $23,978. The national portion is $13,802, leaving the remaining approximately $10,000 for running our chapter. That $10,000 serves our membership in many ways: program expenses, Pipenotes and directory production, competition expenses, Pipe Organ Discovery Days expenses, registrar fees, support for Pipedreams, hospitality and much more.

The executive board carefully manages the budget and is discussing ways to enable you to further support the chapter's work. One might be seeking patrons for specific events. Another is recruiting more members. Another is a line item on the renewal form designated for additional financial contributions to the chapter. I encourage you to give above and beyond the dues. The board is being challenged to do this, and we hope that you will also consider this opportunity. We would hate to stand in the way of your generosity by not offering these opportunities! The guild does need these extra dollars to maintain an operating budget in the black.

And here is a sneak look at the calendar that you can make possible for next season:

2008 National Convention Update

by Mark Kieffer, AGO 2008 Chapter Liaisons Chair

One of the much-anticipated aspects of every AGO national convention is the premiere of newly-commissioned works. The new music committee for the Twin Cities 2008 convention has been hard at work for a number of years already and is very excited to announce five of the major commissions for our convention. Some of the names that follow will be familiar to many and a few may be somewhat more obscure. Among those composers that Minnesotans are probably most familiar with, Aaron Jay Kernis (well-known for his association with the Minnesota Orchestra) has been commissioned to create a work for organ and chorus. Also familiar to most Twin Cities organists is Libby Larsen (Many will remember that a number of years ago TCAGO commissioned her to write On a Day of Bells). For our convention, she has been commissioned to create a new work for organ and brass. Steven Stucky is an American composer who is probably best known for his choral work, Cradle Songs and Whispers, which was recorded by Chanticleer and won several Grammy awards. He has been commissioned to create a choral anthem for our convention. English composer Judith Bingham has been commissioned to create a concerted work for organ and strings and, finally, Finnish composer Jaako Mantjarvi has been commissioned to create a 10-12 minute work for solo organ.

New music always plays a significant part in any AGO convention. You'll want to make sure that you are a part of the audience for the premiere of these new works. Mark your calendars for June 22-26, 2008 right now!

Anyone may list a position opening by writing or calling Robert Anderson, 2024 Kenwood Parkway, Minneapolis, MN 55405-2303, 612-377-4450. Positions are listed in two consecutive issues of PIPENOTES. If the position is still open, the church is asked to relist the opening. A fee of $50 is requested (with the ad running 2 months, and an additional $15 for each month following) for this service. Checks are to be made payable to: TCAGO (Twin Cities Chapter-American Guild of Organists). Calls will be returned by the next business day.

For those who are looking for positions, there are often several weeks between the time a position is open and the date it is published in PIPENOTES. From time to time a congregation is in immediate need. Those of you who would like to have your name suggested to a congregation can leave your name and number with Robert Anderson. His function will be to give a congregation a list of available candidates.

TCAGO COMPETITIONWINNERS

By Dee Ann Crossley

The annual TCAGO student competition was held on March 17 at St. Philip the Deacon Lutheran Church in Plymouth. The church's 3-manual, 51-rank Schantz organ was played beautifully by six young organists from Minnesota, Iowa, Kansas and New York. That these players will go on to be church musicians, teachers and recitalists is encouraging to all of us who care about the organ.

First Prize winner was Adam Peithmann, a student at the Eastman School of Music, who studies the organ with David Higgs. He played the Bach A minor Prelude and Fugue, the Liszt Fantasy and Fugue on BACH and Bolcom's What a Friend We Have in Jesus. Second Prize went to Joshua Lindgren, a junior at Bethany College in Lindsborg, Kansas. He is a student of Heather Herrington-Hernandez. His competition program included the Bach E-flat Major Prelude and Fugue, The Vierne Toccata from the Second Suite and Alain's Le Jardin Suspendu.

Adam will compete at the Region VI Convention in Lincoln, Nebraska in June. (Interestingly, he was the second place winner at the 2005 Region VI competition.)

Judges for the competition were James Callahan, Kim Kasling and Stephen Self.

Many thanks go to the Schubert Club of St. Paul for sponsoring the $1,500 first prize and to TCAGO member Philip Asgian for generously providing the $900 second prize.

PRAISE PARISIENNE NATIONAL LUTHERAN CHOIR AND MARTIN JEAN

Organist Martin Jean partners with the National Lutheran Choir in an unusual concert of French Romantic music for organ and choir. The program includes the Missa Solenne of Louis Vierne, Four Motets by Marcel Dupré, individual a cappella motets by Pierre Villette, Maurice Duruflé, Francis Poulenc, and Olivier Messiaen, and the Finale from Louis Vierne's Fifth Symphony for Organ.

7:30 pm, Friday, May 11, 2007

Saint Andrew's Lutheran Church

900 Stillwater Road, Mahtomedi, Minnesota 55115

*Post-concert reception with Martin Jean

Martin Jean has performed widely throughout the United States and Europe and is known for his wide repertorial interests. He was awarded first place at the international Grand Prix de Chartres in 1986 and, in 1992 at the National Young Artists' Competition in Organ Performance. A student of Robert Glasgow, in the fall of 1999 he spent a sabbatical with Harald Vogel in North Germany. In 2001 he completed a cycle of the complete organ works of Bach at Yale, and his compact discs of The Seven Last Words of Christ by Charles Tournemire and the complete Six Symphonies of Louis Vierne, both recorded in Woolsey Hall, have been released by Loft Recordings. A recording of the organ symphonies of Marcel Dupré is forthcoming on the Delos label. He has performed on four continents and nearly all 50 states.

The massive 4-manual, 108 rank Casavant organ (Op 1177) at St. Andrew's Lutheran Church will undoubtedly shine under the hands and feet of Martin Jean. This program will be recorded and produced for sale on compact disc, available in Fall 2007. Tickets are $16 adults, $5 students, $9 to pre-order compact disc. The disc will ship upon completion in Fall 2007.

Lynn Trapp Featured in Minnesota Chorale's Bridges Program, May 19

By Larry Fuchsberg

Dr. Lynn Trapp will serve as organist and piano accompanist for the Minnesota Chorale's 2007 Bridges community program, "Sing Me a Home." Mounted in partnership with Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity (TCHF), the program is scheduled for Saturday, May 19, 8:00 pm at St. Olaf Catholic Church in Minneapolis. Kathy Saltzman Romey, the Chorale's artistic director, will conduct. The event is part of the St. Olaf Worship and Sacred Music Series.

Four high school choirs and various guest artists will join the Chorale for a polyglot program that explores the idea of home. The concert will showcase five pieces newly commissioned from leading Twin Cities composers, with texts by local high school students based on the stories of families living in TCHF-built houses. Complemented by projected photographs, the music aims to make vivid the vital work in which Habitat is engaged and to embody the Chorale's belief in song as a force for social good.

Tickets ($15-25; $10-20 for students and seniors) are available online at www.uptowntix.com or by phone at 651-209-6799. For more information on this and other Minnesota Chorale programs, please call 612-333-4866. □

Meet Mary Bonde

By Marta Edman

Mary Bonde is the Director of Music and Worship Arts at Trinity Lutheran Church and School in Waconia, Minnesota. At Trinity, she plays both organ and keyboard for a variety of different services, and also creates the screens for worship, which include hymns, scripture, liturgy, images, and text to accompany the service. She is also director of the Trinity School of Music, where children from the greater Waconia area receive instruction in instrumental music.

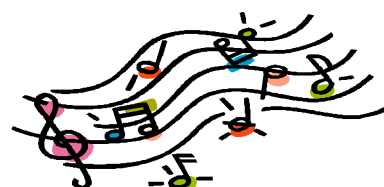

She is a 2003 graduate of Mary Bonde

versity – Wisconsin, where she had originally planned to major in Art Education. She began studying organ in the fall of 1999 with James Freese, and quickly changed her major to Parish Music after realizing she loved playing the organ and leading worship.

Mary is also a student at the University of Minnesota, pursuing a Master of Music degree in Organ Performance. She studies with Dean Billmeyer, and will graduate this spring. Reflecting on her time at the U, Mary said, "These past two years I have been blessed with the opportunity to continue developing my musical skills at the University of Minnesota while working at Trinity. The U has a wonderful School of Music and the organ program has encouraged my musical development as well as my performance confidence."

When she's not playing the organ, Mary enjoys a variety of hobbies, including walking, reading, playing basketball, racquetball and disc golf. She lives in Minnetonka with her husband, Jason. □
