CONVENTION CORNER

Exciting venues for organ music!

As we continue to get closer to the opening of the 2008 National Convention of the AGO on June 22nd, I wanted to take an opportunity to highlight the wonderful instruments and performance venues that have been chosen for the convention recitals and concerts. Some of these instruments, such as the large Fisk organ at House of Hope Presbyterian Church in St. Paul and the Kney organ at the University of St. Thomas are well known to many Twin Cities concert goers because of their regular recital series performances. There are many other instruments that are probably known less well, but they were chosen for use during the convention because they offer unique and exciting performance opportunities. These include the 3-manual VanDaalen organ at Jehovah Lutheran Church in St. Paul, the relatively new Fisk organ at Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran in Shoreview, Fritz Noack's modest-sized gem at the St. Paul Catholic Seminary and the spunky Brunzema-Casavant at Maternity of Mary, also in St. Paul. In addition to these there are two more recently installed organs on the St. Paul "side" of things, the Casavant organ at Nativity Catholic Church in St. Paul and the Glatzer/Goetz & Rosales organ at Augustana Lutheran Church in West St. Paul. We will also have the opportunity to hear recital performances on some of the Twin Cities large organs in downtown Minneapolis and in the surrounding suburbs. These include the Lively-Fulcher organ at St. Olaf Catholic Church, the 4-manual Sipe at Hennepin Avenue United Methodist, the Welte-Moeller organ at St. Mark's Episcopal Cathedral and the Holtkamp organ at Plymouth Congregational. Farther out from downtown, we will hear the 1920s Casavant organ that has recently found a new home at St. Andrew's Lutheran Church in Mahtomedi, the Blackinton organ at Bethel College, the Hendrickson organ at Wayzata Community Church and the state's largest mechanical action organ, built by Visser-Rowland at Wooddale Church in Eden Prairie.

Letters to the Editor are always welcome. Please send, fax or email letters to Barb Herzog.

Minnesota Public Radio encourages you to enter your classical musical performance events in the MPR online calendar. In the box in the upper left corner of the MPR main page <<http://www.mpr.org>>, click on 'Events Calendar'...then follow the instructions on the calendar page to 'submit a new event'.

This information will reach an audience different from the online TCAGO or PIPE DREAMS calendars. It's free, and it's another way to let people know about your classical music concerts.

By all means, continue to send information directly to Michael Barone too...

FREE ONLINE PROMOTION!!!

Gain potential additional promotional exposure for your performance event (concerts only, not services) by listing it on the Minnesota Public Radio Online Event's calendar (separate from the PIPE DREAMS calendar!). Go to <www.mpr.org>, click on 'classical' in the upper green box, scroll down and click on 'regional events' in the EVENTS panel, then click on 'submit an event' and follow the prompts. It's free, and is widely read (particularly by MPR's on-air hosts).

Another exciting piece of news to report on the Twin Cities organ scene is the significant renovation of two of the large instruments in major downtown churches in time for the convention: the 1949 Wicks organ at St. Mary's Basilica and the 1963 Casavant organ at Central Lutheran. Also located downtown will be the most recently installed organ in the Twin Cities—a new Dobson organ for the chapel at Westminster Presbyterian. While the space is too small for a major recital, the organ is sure to be available for workshops and presentations.

In addition to these many and varied organs being used for recitals, we will head to two major choral events at the St. Paul Cathedral and a special program of some of the instrumental music of Olivier Messiaen held at Orchestra Hall.

As you can see, AGO 2008 will provide an opportunity to hear nearly 20 different organs in churches and halls all over the Twin Cities. An opportunity such as this will not occur again any time soon. If you have not already registered, do so today! Photos and stoplists of all of the organs mentioned can be found at the convention website at <http://www.ago2008.org/HTML/Venues/Venues.html> and photos and a stoplist of the new Dobson organ can be found at http://www.dobsonorgan.com/html/instruments/op86_minneapolis.html. Dean's Column

Greetings,

The executive board last met January 28th, the eve of that memorable day when Twin Cities' temperatures fell 50 degrees in twenty-four hours. We were warmly welcomed to the home of Barb Herzog, TCAGO Registrar and Pipenotes editor of many years, for a potluck dinner and our business meeting. We thank you, Barb, for your gracious invitation and hospitality.

Committee reports included the following:

- 1) Chapter archives will be moved to a newly completed archive at Westminster Presbyterian in Minneapolis. There they will be preserved in climate-controlled space affording archivist, Jerry Bonstrom, the full use of his bedroom closet once again. Also, thank-you, Jerry, for the interesting article/interview with former dean, Robert Wolfe, in the last Pipenotes issue.
- 2) Sam Holmberg was recently chosen as the first recipient of a Michael Barone organ scholarship. Sam has been a regular participant in our chapter's Pipe Organ Discovery Days and will use his scholarship to pursue lessons with Dr. Lynn Trapp. Auditions for ongoing scholarship awards will be held in April. Please continue to encourage young keyboard players to apply. See February Pipenotes or TCAGO website for guidelines and applications.
- 3) Mary Newton currently has eleven students registered to compete in the annual competition, which will be held at Westwood Lutheran Church.
- 4) The nominating committee has been formed. Thanks to Karen Bartz and Kraig Windschitl for organizing this group and preparing the slate of candidates for the upcoming election.
- 5) The program committee is well advanced in planning the 2008-2009 calendar.
- 6) The professional concerns committee is in the midst of preparing salary guidelines for next year. They will be published in Pipenotes later this spring.

AGO 2008 draws closer by the minute! Martha Mutch, convention registrar, is currently processing hundreds of registrations and answering the mountains of questions received daily from convention goers. Hang in there, Martha! Tim Buendorf, webmaster, has provided a great on-line view of the convention. Bill Stump and the rest of the steering committee continue meeting, planning, working and working

Let's Keep our Twin Cities' Organ Database Current!

On the TCAGO homepage there is a link called "Organs". It will lead you to a couple of databases, created and maintained by Richard Greene, a member of our chapter. One is a database of information and pictures of Twin Cities' organs. The other is a compilation of 1162 organ recital programs from 1941 to 2001.

In preparation for the National Convention in June, Richard is asking members to "proof-read" the organ specification database for him. In typing up around 375 organ specifications,

Anyone may list a position opening by writing or calling Robert Anderson, 2024 Kenwood Parkway, Minneapolis, MN 55405-2303, 612-377-4450. Positions are listed in two consecutive issues of PIPENOTES. If the position is still open, the church is asked to relist the opening. A fee of $50 is requested (with the ad running 2 months, and an additional $15 for each month following) for this service. Checks are to be made payable to: TCAGO (Twin Cities Chapter-American Guild of Organists). Calls will be returned by the next business day.

For those who are looking for positions, there are often several weeks between the time a position is open and the date it is published in PIPENOTES. From time to time a congregation is in immediate need. Those of you who would like to have your name suggested to a congregation can leave your name and number with Robert Anderson. His function will be to give a congregation a list of available candidates.

some more. The convention will need every chapter member to volunteer time and talent before, during or after the convention. Please contact Carol Hipps soon, and she will help plug you in where you're needed most. It's going to be a great week!

he feels there is just the slightest possibility of a typo or two. Send all corrections to him at rgreene@mac.com.

Many of the specifications came from inaugural recital programs. Many of the organs have been added to or changed in the intervening years. Please send those changes.

There are certainly more than 375 organs in this area. If you have the specifications and a picture of any organ not presently contained in the database, please send it to Richard at 739 Como Ave, Saint Paul, MN 55103. Your materials will be returned. □

Evensong at Saint John the Evangelist Episcopal Church

By Jim Frazier

The choir of Saint John the Evangelist Episcopal Church in Saint Paul will sing a Lenten Evensong on Sunday, March 2 at 4:00 pm. The anthem for the service will be Like as the Hart, by Herbert Howells, conducted by James Frazier, with guest organist Helen Jensen. After the service, three of Saint John's section leaders will perform music for the season with piano and organ accompaniment, namely, soprano Linda Zelig, mezzo-soprano Krista Palmquist and baritone David Jacobson. A free-will offering will be received to benefit the Winifred Bean Evensong Fund. A reception will follow the service. The church is located at 60 Kent Street in Saint Paul, a block north of Summit and a block east of Dale. The church is handicap accessible from Kent Street. Off-street parking is available at Summit and Kent. For further information, contact James Frazier at 651 228-1172 x38. □

Norwegian Artist Presents Organ and Jazz Piano Recital

Lars Gjerde, a young and ambitious Norwegian organist, will perform a program of music for Lent at Mount Olive Lutheran Church, Minneapolis, on Saturday, March 15, at 4:00 pm. In addition to appearing in Minneapolis, Mr. Gjerde will present his program in Sisseton, South Dakota, and in Cottonwood, Minnesota.

Lars Gjerde (27), a native of Aure, Norway, is a doctoral student in organ performance and church music at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York, where he received his Master of Music degree in October 2007. A graduate of both the Edvard Grieg Academy of Music in Norway and of Augustana College of Liberal Arts in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Lars is returning to the Midwest this March to play a program of organ music and jazz piano improvisations appropriate for the liturgical season of Lent. Musical selections will include traditional works by Bach, Buxtehude, Grigny, Mendelssohn, Vierne, and Widor, as well as a recent work by the French virtuoso Daniel Roth. Mr. Gjerde will be assisted by tenor Scott Perkins, also a graduate student at the Eastman School, in performances of the artists' own jazz arrangements of Lenten hymns.

Lars Gjerde has performed and participated in master classes in Norway, Sweden, Italy, and throughout the United States, appearing frequently in South Dakota. While a student at Augustana College, where he also served as Chapel Organist, Lars was the Second National Winner in the Music Teachers' National Association Collegiate Organ Competition and received honorable mention in the famous Augustana/Reuters Organ Competition in Denver, Colorado. Lars joined the Choirboys of Augustana College to release the CD "In the Bleak Midwinter" as a fundraising effort for Lutheran World Relief in 2001, a successful project which received media attention throughout South Dakota.

There is no charge for admission to the recital. A free will offering will be received. The program is sponsored by Mount Olive Lutheran Church (see www.mountolivechurch.org), which is located at 3045 Chicago Avenue South in Minneapolis. For more information on the performer, please visit www.larsgjerde.com. □

Maria Bucka Honored for her Thirty Years at Bethlehem Lutheran Church

Last fall Maria Bucka was presented with a plaque in recognition of her 30 years at Bethlehem which was placed on the organ renaming and rededicating it as the Maria Bucka Casavant Organ. The plaque reads: The Maria Bucka Casavant Organ – rededicated to the Glory of God and in honor of Maria Bucka for her first thirty years as Bethlehem Organist Director of Music and Leader of the People's Song, Christ The King Sunday, November 25, 2007. Soli Deo Gloria!

Earlier in the year, a St. John's Bible print was presented to her by the Senior Choir and the Bethlehem Music Series Board of Directors commissioned six organ compositions based on Christmas carols which were composed by David Cherwien and named The Bethlehem Collection in Maria's honor. □

The Bakken welcomes guest Artistic Partners Dean Billmeyer, Celine Leathead and Korey Konkol to forge this extraordinary experience. This the fifth concert of the Bakken in their new home at the Hamm Building, 408 Saint Peter St. in St. Paul. The concert will take place in the Huss Music Room on the third floor of the Hamm Building. Acclaimed for their intensity and refinement, the Bakken is one of the premier chamber music institutions of Minnesota, which presents a challenging but accessible mix of traditional chamber music and virtuosic modern compositions.

Bakken Trio Presents EKSTASIS

By Mina Fisher

The Bakken Trio presents Ekstasis – a soul-searching musical journey across four centuries. The Bakken explores chamber music inspired by the intersection of the human quest and sensation of the divine. The monumental Opus 132 quartet of Beethoven ends a program curated by violinist Stephanie Arado which includes Biber's Mystery Sonatas for violin and chamber organ, Messiaen's Theme and Variations, and the Ave Marias of Faure and Schubert.

Ekstasis is a Greek word for moving beyond oneself – beyond perceived limitations and constrictions – into a space where we come into contact with our innate wholeness and unity with everything that exists. Ekstasis is to move beyond the duality in our everyday thinking, our inner conflicts, the disparate parts of ourselves, to find peace in the stillness of our soul.

Superstar Maureen McGovern sings with VocalEssence Chorus at The Fitzgerald in April Concert

by Laura Holst

Grammy nominated and Oscar winning vocalist Maureen McGovern will sing with the backing of the VocalEssence Chorus & Ensemble Singers in concert at St. Paul's Fitzgerald Theater on Sunday, April 6 (4:00 pm). Charles Kemper will be at the piano and Philip Brunelle will conduct an afternoon of lighthearted music on the theme of "spring." Adult tickets are priced at $20-$35 (students half-price, service charges apply). For tickets to The Joy of Spring with Maureen McGovern, please call 612-673-0404 or visit www.vocalescence.org.

Maureen McGovern first appeared with VocalEssence in Gershwin's Of Thee I Sing in 1999. Her charming performance as the winsome Mary Turner garnered acclaim from critic Michael Anthony, who wrote in the Star Tribune, "Her opulent tone and immaculate pitch would enhance any show." Maureen McGovern's career, which spans nearly 35 years, includes recordings, concerts, Broadway, theater, films, television, radio and composing.

Together, Philip Brunelle and Maureen McGovern have selected songs for The Joy of Spring that will highlight her "Stradivarius Voice" as well as the "glorious, full throated singing" (Star Tribune) of the 120-voice VocalEssence Chorus.

Maureen McGovern

The concert will begin with a set featuring the 32-voice Ensemble Singers sampling romantic and classical music from days of madrigals to the 20th century. Following a solo set by Maureen with songs like "It Was Just One of Those Things," "Spring Can Really Hang You Up the Most" and "Blues in the Night," the first half closes with the VocalEssence Chorus & Ensemble Singers performing the choral version of the Blue Danube Waltz.

After intermission, the Ensemble Singers will premiere "Coming of Spring," a beautiful new work by Carleton professor Gao Hong with the composer herself on pipa (Chinese lute, of which she is a world renowned master). Then Maureen returns to sing a suite of light-hearted tunes with the backing of the Ensemble Singers & Chorus—all the way from

"Tiptoe Through the Tulips" to "Somewhere Over the Rainbow."

Maureen's current releases, Help is On the Way (in partnership with Broadway Cares/Equity Fights Aids) and Works of Heart, songs of hope featuring a newly recorded 30th Anniversary version of "The Morning After" launched the Maureen McGovern "Works of Heart" Foundation for Music and Healing to address the emotional and inspirational needs of patients and caregivers. Maureen McGovern is a National Board Member of the Muscular Dystrophy Association and an Artist Spokesperson for The American Music Therapy Association.

AGO Code of Ethics (Approved by National Council 11/15/99)

Preamble: The purpose of the American Guild of Organists is to promote the organ in its historic and evolving roles, to encourage excellence in the performance of organ and choral music, and to provide a forum for mutual support, inspiration, education, and certification of Guild members. Voting members are entitled to enjoy the privileges and are expected to accept the responsibilities of membership in the Guild. Members shall be considered equally for Guild offices and participation in Guild activities. These are the rules that shall be considered binding upon all voting members in good standing.

RULE 1. Members shall promote good working relationships within the American Guild of Organists and shall respect the employment of colleagues. Members shall address differences between themselves and other members by following the procedures outlined in the Discipline.

RULE 2. Members shall not seek or appear to be seeking employment for themselves, a student or a colleague, in a position held by someone else. Members shall apply for employment only for a position which has been officially and publicly declared vacant by announcement of the vacancy, with the knowledge of the incumbent musician.

RULE 3. In cases pending under the Procedures or in cases where the National Council has determined that a position has been made vacant by wrongful termination of a member of the American Guild of Organists, members shall not seek or accept regular or permanent employment for themselves, a student or colleague at that institution until the National Council is satisfied that differences between the Guild and the institution have been resolved.

RULE 4. Before accepting an engagement for a wedding, funeral, or other service, members shall obtain the approval of the incumbent musician. In cases where this engagement has been requested by a third party, it is appropriate for the third party to offer the incumbent his/her customary fee. It is the responsibility of members to inform the third party of this rule.

RULE 5. Members shall conduct professional activities with truthfulness, honesty and integrity, and shall maintain sensitivity in matters of a personal or confidential nature.

RULE 6. Members shall not discriminate against others on the basis of race, national origin, age, religious affiliation, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, disability, or medical condition (including, but not limited to Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome).

AGO Code of Professional Standards (Approved by National Council 11/15/99)

Skills:

- i. Members develop and maintain skills in performance, improvisation, service playing, conducting, arranging, and composing commensurate with their duties.
- ii. Members stay abreast of current developments in liturgy, hymnody, performance practice, and musicology through continuing education.
- iii. Members become knowledgeable in the liturgy and worship traditions of the institutions they serve.
- iv. Members acquire business, administrative and interpersonal skills to perform their duties.

Employment Matters:

- i. Members agree to employment only after reaching a clear understanding of the position, the employer's expectations, and the lines of accountability.
- ii. Members request written contracts that protect employee and employer.
- iii. Members maintain courteous and respectful relationships with other staff members and members of their congregations, making an effort to resolve potential conflicts as soon as they become evident.
- iv. Members address differences with employing institutions through appropriate channels, including, but not limited to, their contract, the institution's personnel policies manual, and the Guild's Procedures for Dealing with Complaints about Termination.

Respect for Colleagues:

- i. Members supervise other musicians in a professional and courteous manner.
- ii. Members respect the intellectual property rights of composers, authors and publishers by complying with the Copyright Law and licensing requirements regarding reproduction, recording, distribution, broadcasting and performing rights.
- iii. Members address differences with other members of the American Guild of Organists by following the procedures outlined in the Discipline.
- iv. Members do not discriminate against others on the basis of race, national origin, age, religious affiliation, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, disability, or medical condition (including, but not limited to Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome).
