Dean's Column

Laura Edman

The All-New February Tune-up was a wonderful combination of performance, improvisation, scholarship and philosophies about the use of organ improvisation in worship. Improvisation weaved itself throughout the two portions of the tune-up with John Schwandt's delightful improvisations at the concert Friday evening and James Hammann's comments regarding Mendelssohn's prowess as an improviser at the Saturday morning session.

Schwandt's demonstrations of the creative use of organ improvisation in worship were thought-provoking and energizing. We thank Linda Armstrong, Director of Music and Organist at St. Philip the Deacon, and Paul Lohman, Schantz Organ Representative, for producing the February Tune-up with TCAGO.

When former Dean Jim Callahan and the TCAGO board amended the Chapter Operating Procedures in 2012, an additional position was created called Communication Coordinator. The position was recently filled when the board approved the appointment of Jeremy Haug as TCAGO's first Communication Coordinator at its January meeting. We are grateful that Jeremy has agreed to work in this position to improve both the inner communications of TCAGO leadership teams and communication with members, potential members, expanding our use of Facebook and using marketing strategies to increase attendance at events. Thank you, Jeremy, for accepting this role.

Election time is right around the corner once again

Another important board action is listed in an article included in this issue of Pipenotes. Please take time to read the Letter from the Dean regarding National AGO's implementation of ONCARD and the national collection of AGO dues.

March 15 brings with it tried and true programming – the Bach Birthday Bash. We hope you choose to attend all or part of the Bach Birthday Bash concerts in St. Paul. In addition, mark your calendars for the Student Competition on Saturday, March 22 and Winners' Recital at Augustana Lutheran Church the next day. This is a great way to support young performers who will continue the traditions of fine performance in the Guild. See you in March!

The annual student competition will be Saturday, March 22, at Augustana Lutheran Church in St. Paul. Competitors will gather and compete on the 2-manual Glatter-Götz/Rosales organ. The competition will run from 9:30 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. Please check the website for the updated performance schedule.

The first prize is $2,000, awarded by The Schubert Club as part of its annual Bruce P. Carlson Student Scholarship Competition. The second prize of $1,000 is sponsored by TCAGO member Phil Asgian.

This year there will be a new event connected to the competition. A Winners' Recital will be held the next day – Sunday, March 23, – at Augustana. This recital will be at 3:00 p.m. and will feature the first and second place winners as they share their repertoire from the competition.

The purpose of these competitions is to encourage young organists to pursue excellence, gain performance experience, and receive recognition for their achievements. These competitions begin at the Chapter level and conclude at the Regional Conventions.

All are welcome to attend the competition and the Winners' Recital. This is a great way to support our next generation of organists. For further information, contact Mary Newton, competition coordinator, at mayanewton@yahoo.com.

ONCARD

Laura Edman

The January and February 2014 issues of The American Organist have announced the upcoming implementation of ONCARD, the national AGO program for the collection of membership dues for 2014-2015.

At our February 3 meeting, the TCAGO Board of Directors voted to delay using ONCARD for at least one year. This means that the Twin Cities Chapter will collect dues as we have in the past. You will be able to renew your membership online at our website or print the membership form and mail it to the registrar. We will mail membership forms to members without emails so they may renew with a hard copy of the form. Information about TCAGO membership renewal will be sent to members in May 2014.

The Board decided to delay joining the ONCARD collection for several reasons.

1. Our website committee worked last year to implement dues collection with an online membership management system (Wild Apricot) and had success with this website software. In addition to dues collection, we used the online software for registration for chapter events, member e-blasts, donations, and other communications. This website software enables us to manage membership data, and allows members to make changes to their information using a password for access to the directory listing.

2. Bill Valentine, the full-time national AGO web master assured me that it is okay to wait a year while national works with smaller chapters that don't have resources for online renewal.
3. Twin Cities AGO members will be listed in the national online directory that will be included with ONCARD renewal.
4. The Board is optimistic that our members will support the decision made by the board. We hope you appreciate the benefits of being a TCAGO member and continue to support the chapter with your membership renewals.
5. It is my understanding that current TCAGO members will not be able to join the AGO through ONCARD since our chapter is opting not to participate this year. Please feel free to email or call me with questions or concerns about TCAGO membership renewal in 2014-2015.

The TCAGO Organ List has over 2500 organs listed. I’ve just finished a six-month project contacting all the institutions I could for updates on their organs. I don’t always hear back but I like to say I’m batting .500.

I need your help. Would you please go to the Organ List and look over the organs you know? The Organ List is under “Resources” on the main TCAGO Web Page.

Please let me know of updates, errors or changes for the instruments listed on the website.

Celebrate a Fabulous Fortieth!

Friday, March 21, 7:30 p.m.
Hamline Methodist Church

<http://www.hamlinechurch.org>

Mary Bakeman

A 40th Anniversary gala recital celebrating the three-manual, 64-rank Casavant pipe organ at Hamline United Methodist Church in St. Paul will take place Friday evening, March 21, at 7:30 p.m. The program features Kim Kasling, Principal Organist at Hamline Church, Christopher Stroh, Principal Organist at the Basilica of St. Mary, and Anne Phillips, Organist and Music Coordinator at Epiphany Church, Coon Rapids.

The program is designed to show the colors and versatility of this magnificent instrument. Works performed will be by Buxtehude, Bach, Schubert, Franck, Widor, John Knowles Paine and Charles Ives. There will be more than a few notes flying by as well ... for example, in one work – the Paine – a single variation features over 300 pedal notes in just thirteen measures! The audience will be invited to sing along in conjunction with one or two pieces as well.

The church's 1974 three-manual, 64-rank Casavant organ is benefitting from some designated gifts to update action and mechanical components as well as cleaning and re-regulation of some pipework. There is also an addition of two stops, enabling the organ to play a greater and more versatile range of repertoire and to more effectively lead congregational singing and accompany choral, vocal and instrumental literature. The console has been mounted on a movable platform as well for greater flexibility. All work has been done by Allen Moe.

Allen Moe of Moe Pipe Organ Company of Wadena, and Kim Kasling prepare to unload a truckload of pedal pipes on January 29. The pipes came from Atonement Lutheran Church in Bloomington.

Admission is free and a free-will offering will be taken. There will be a reception following the program and the console will be left open for inspection. The beautiful, lofty church, famed for its stained glass windows and listed on the National Register of Historic Places, is located at 1514 Englewood Avenue, St. Paul, directly across the street from the south side of Hamline University. There is ample parking behind the church.

Pipedreams

For a listing of organ events statewide, access the Pipedreams Organ Calendar: www.pipedreams.org/calendar. For both on-air and website listing of organ-related activities, send information to Michael Barone, 480 Cedar St., St. Paul, MN 55101.

MPR

Minnesota Public Radio encourages you to enter your classical music performance events in the MPR online calendar.

This information will reach a different audience than the online TCAGO or Pipedreams calendars. It's free, and it's another way to let people know about your classical music concerts.

By all means, continue to send information directly to Michael Barone too.

Regional broadcasts of Pipedreams are supported, in part, with a grant from the members and friends of the Twin Cities Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.
